

The Original

HIGHLAND

COLONIAL

BENTGRASS

Highland Bentgrass

Highland Colonial Bentgrass is the most widely used bentgrass in the world. It has excellent density, fine leaf texture, shade tolerance, blue-green color, persistent fast establishment and is very drought tolerant. Highland Colonial Bentgrass has been used for many years in Europe and the United States. Highland Colonial Bentgrass is a very versatile bentgrass and can be used on sports fields, golf course and home lawns.

Growing Highland Colonial Bentgrass is a tradition for brothers Kevin and Kent Doerfler. Doerfler Farms has over 50 years experience in producing, cleaning, blending, and shipping seed to countries all over the globe. They are the world's premier producer of cool-season grass seed and Highland Colonial Bentgrass. To get the original Highland Colonial Bentgrass, purchase from Columbia Seeds for the Doerfler Farms quality M20 lots.

Characteristics

Seeding Rate:	1-2 lbs. per 1,000 sq ft
Seed Count:	6,000,000
Growth Habit:	Stolons
Establishment Rate:	Fast 10 days
Mowing Height:	3/8-5/8 inches
Shade Tolerance:	Fair
Drought Tolerance:	Excellent
Cold Tolerance:	Excellent
Traffic Tolerance:	Good